

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

New York.—Grief over death of schoolmate believed to have led Henry Becker, 15, to end life.

St. Paul.—Henry Winkel, 15, killed in auto accident.

Denver.—Two robbers held up night clerk of Shirley Hotel, imprisoned night watchman and porter in elevator cage and escaped with several hundred dollars.

Indianapolis.—Mrs. Helen Foreman, 22, awaiting aid from family to bury young husband who suicided from unemployment.

Cleveland.—"Woman is sweetest vision hobo has," delegate told convention, urging police department "solely of women to help rather than persecute" tramps.

Connellsville, Pa.—While Rev. C. W. Winey preached revival service, United Brethren Church thief entered parsonage and stole $100.

Detroit.—Property damage resulting from series of sewer gas explosions in West Side residence section estimated at $25,000.

Detroit.—Storm warnings posted by local weather bureau.

Calumet.—One of most serious blizzards of season sweeping over copper country. Much suffering among families of strikers.

Salem, Mich.—Mrs. Mary Wilcox, invalid, burned to death in home when clothing caught fire from kitchen stove.

New York.—Joseph Cassidy, for years Democratic boss of Queens county, on trial on charge of conspiracy to sell Supreme Court nominations.

Washington. — Col. George W. Goethals accepted offer of governorship of Canal Zone.

Cleveland.—Farragut Wertz, 40, Mayfield Center farmer, suicided following attempt to kill Wilson Willis, neighbor who interfered when Wertz was abusing wife.

Lansing, Mich. — 100 delegates from various parts of state, headed by John Fitzpatrick, president Chicago Federation of Labor, and Chas. H. Tanner, man who was deported with Moyer from copper strike region, gathered here to devise ways and means to keep strike going.

Los Angeles.—That F. Lewis Clark, Spokane millionaire, has been kidnaped and is being held for $75,000 ransom is statement in letter received by Chief of Police Sebastian. Clark has been missing since Jan. 17.

Washington.—Strike probers on House mines committee plan to start next Monday for Calumet and Colorado districts.

Minneapolis. — Jewelry believed worth more than $1,000 loot of burglars who raided 3 homes in same block.

Washington.—Drastic amendment to Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill, providing for deportation of any persons, alien or American citizens, who assist in immigration of persons teaching destruction of property, including militant suffragets, adopted by House immigration committee.

Jefferson City, Mo.—Frank Marri-son, 55, began his ninth term in prison for larceny yesterday.

New York.—Foyer of F. F. Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theater will be used for dancing by theater audiences during intermissions.

St. Louis.—Third attempt to wreck trains of Missouri Pacific made today. No clue.

Washington.—Enactment of a new "workmen's compensation" law for injured railroad employes urged by Rep. Sabath, Illinois, before House interstate commerce commission.

Columbus, O.—Ohio coal operators threaten vigorous fight on new mine screen law passed by Senate and now before the House.

Decatur, Ill.—Farmers in Macon and surrounding country beginning spring plowing for oats and corn.

Washington.—Senate adopted recommendation of committee that